

ALL TALL SHEETS WILL BE PRODUCED

McClellan Yields to Supreme Court Order.

ONLY AFTER FAIR COUNT

Count So Far Has Not Revealed Irregularities in Richmond and Queens Counties.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The fight of William R. Hearst to have the original tally sheets produced when asked for while the vote is being canvassed has been successful. Mayor McClellan's sense of fairness is responsible for the fact that this result was so quickly obtained.

The Hearst people late yesterday secured an order from Judge Amend which directed that cause must be shown in court this morning why the original tally sheets should not be produced. When the case came up in the supreme court this morning Austin G. Fox was there to plead the cause of Mr. Hearst; Arthur C. Butts represented the board of canvassers, and Judge Alton B. Parker looked after the interests of Mayor McClellan.

Some arguments were made for and against the order by Messrs. Fox and Butts, and then Judge Parker made a statement in behalf of the mayor which settled the case in quick order. Mr. Parker said that Mayor McClellan had no desire to take advantage of legal technicalities which could be brought forward to obstruct this order. The mayor desired a fair and honest count, and one that would settle once and for all the disputes growing out of this election. Judge Parker took occasion to say that if Mayor McClellan had not held such ideas he did not have represented him as counsel.

Judge Amend then issued the order which provides that all the tally sheets shall be produced before the board of canvassers, and that they shall be open for the inspection of the attorneys of both sides. They will be used in verifying all the reports made of the original returns.

The board of canvassers in New York, pending this decision, had taken a recess. When the decision was announced an adjournment was taken until tomorrow morning, when the count will begin.

In Richmond and Queens the count is proceeding today. No irregularities affecting the mayorality fight have so far been brought to light. In Brooklyn the beginning of the count was also interfered with by legal moves.

SUSAN B. ANTHONY CALLS UPON PRESIDENT

Highly Pleased With Interview in Which Woman Suffrage Was the Topic.

Susan B. Anthony, accompanied by Mrs. Harry T. Thayer and Ida Husted Harper, were among President Roosevelt's callers this afternoon. Mrs. Anthony stated after the interview that she and her associates in the work for woman suffrage called upon the President to talk with him "about our question."

The annual convention of the woman suffrage movement will take place in Baltimore from February 7 to 12. During this convention the Congressional committee will come over to Washington to place before Congress some matters in the interest of suffrage for the women of the country.

On February 15, two days after the adjournment of the convention in Baltimore, all of the delegates will assemble in Washington to celebrate the eighty-sixth birthday of Miss Anthony. All three woman suffrage leaders expressed themselves as highly satisfied with the interview of the President.

REV. DR. GLADDEN WILL ADDRESS MEETING

What promises to be a most interesting religious meeting will be held Friday evening at the First Congregational Church, Tenth and G streets, under the auspices of the Washington Congregational Club. Prof. Charles E. Clark, the president of the club, has succeeded in securing Rev. Washington Gladden, D. D., of Columbus, Ohio, as the chief speaker.

IMPORTANT CHANGE IN POSTAL DEPARTMENT

New Order of Things Just Announced
by Postmaster General Cortelyou.

A complete rearrangement of the duties of the four Assistant Postmaster Generals was yesterday ordered by Postmaster General Cortelyou.

Mr. Cortelyou remained with the President some time after the Cabinet meeting yesterday afternoon, and no doubt these changes were the subject of which he discussed with the Chief Executive.

Some of the most important changes are as follows: The city delivery division and the appointment division, for many years after the Cabinet meeting yesterday afternoon, and no doubt these changes were the subject of which he discussed with the Chief Executive.

Perhaps the most important of all the changes is that which takes part of the rural free delivery service from out of the hands of the Fourth Assistant, and places it under the Postmaster General himself. That official will have control of all the division superintendents and rural agents.

Postmaster General Cortelyou believes that under the new order of things the work of the department will be more evenly distributed than heretofore.

EMMA CALVE TO SING AT NATIONAL TOMORROW

Madame Calve will make her only appearance in Washington tomorrow afternoon at the National Theater at 8.30.

Music lovers of Washington anticipate one of the greatest music treats they have enjoyed in her appearance on the concert stage.

In many ways, Calve's operatic career has never given her full opportunity to display her vocal ability. Her appearance in concert will give her a new opening to show the loveliness of her vocal gifts, and her talent for dramatic expression in song. She will sing excerpts from "Carmen" and other operas as well as David's "Perle de Bresil," Gounod's "Sappho," an air from Berlioz's "Dramma de Faust," and groups of Italian and French folk songs.

Calve will be assisted by Mons. Buxman, the French basso.

ASST. CHIEF FIRMIN'S FORTY YEARS' SERVICE

Old and Respected Employee of Paymaster's Division Honored by Associates.

Orange S. Firmin, assistant chief of paymaster's division in the office of the Auditor for the War Department, completed the fortieth year of service Tuesday last. The occasion was fittingly remembered when a desk loaded with potted plants and cut flowers was sent by friends as a pleasant surprise.

That the value of Mr. Firmin's services during this long period has been recognized by the Government has been shown by its sending him on special missions to Europe and various parts of this country in connection with his office work, and in placing him upon important departmental committees.

Mr. Firmin came to Washington from the State of Connecticut, having served for three years during the civil war in the Seventeenth Connecticut Volunteers. He is past master of Harmony Lodge, a life member of Mt. Vernon Chapter, No. 1, and Mitras Lodge, A. S. R. He is also a member of Burnside Post, G. A. R.; of the Union Soldiers' Alliance, and prominent in the organization of the Sons of the Revolution. In personal appearance, Mr. Firmin so closely resembles Admiral Schley that many incidents, both ludicrous and pleasant, have arisen from the likeness.

He is in such good health and so young in spirit and looks that his friends confidently expect him to add at least twenty-five more years to his record as a worker in Uncle Sam's office.

RODGER'S LECTURES ARE OF MUCH INTEREST

Prof. J. G. Rodger, Ph. D., of the University Union of California, is giving a series of "religio-scientific" lectures at the Metropolitan Presbyterian Church, Fourth and B streets southeast, each night this week, Saturday excepted.

The following subjects will be discussed on the evenings mentioned: Wednesday, "The Christ of Science"; Thursday, "Is There a Spirit of Science?"; Friday, "Is There a Revelation of Science?"; Saturday, "The Christ of Science." After each lecture there will be a quiz hour, when everybody will be invited to take part.

PROMINENT PRELATES VISITING WASHINGTON

After Visit to Rome They Stop Over
Here to Call on Monsignor Falconio.

Bishop Herman Joseph Alerding, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Very Rev. Boniface Russ, provincial of the congregation of the Precious Blood in the United States, whose headquarters are at Carthage, Ohio, are in Washington.

When seen at the Shoreham Hotel, where they are both stopping, the bishop said that they had just come from Rome and were on their way home. He said that while in Washington they would call on the Apostolic delegate, Monsignor Falconio, to pay their respects. It is said that Bishop Alerding's trip to Rome was the usual visit "ad limina," which must be made every ten years by the head of the diocese. Although the bishop has been consecrated only since November 30, 1900, it would be necessary for him to go to Rome if it has been a decade since his predecessor last visited the Pope. Both distinguished clergymen were looking well, the sea voyage doubtless having greatly benefited them.
